ALISON J. NATHAN, United States District Judge:

A presentment, arraignment, and initial conference for an alleged violation of supervised release in the above-captioned matter is currently scheduled for August 21, 2020 at 11 a.m. In light of the COVID public health crisis, the parties have agreed to proceed remotely. Dkt. No. 2937. The conference will thus be held by videoconference using the Skype for Business platform. To that end, defense counsel should confer with the Defendant regarding waiving his physical presence and provide the attached waiver form to him. If Mr. Reid, after reviewing the form and being advised of its contents, wishes to waive his right to be physically present, he and his counsel should return the signed waiver form no later than August 19, 2020.

SO ORDERED.

____ Conference

I understand that I have a right to appear before a judge in a courtroom in the Southern District of New York at the time the conditions of my release on supervision or my remand to custody are discussed. I have discussed these issues with my attorney and wish to give up my right to be present at the conferences. By signing this document, I wish to advise the court that I willingly give up my right to be present at the conferences in my case for the period of time in which access to the courthouse has been restricted on account of the COVID-19 pandemic. I request that my attorney be permitted to represent my interests at the proceedings even though I will not be present.
